REV WILLS PREACHES. He Explains Baptism

Rev. Richard Wells, pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist Church preached ast Sunday morning from Mark

He referred to the necessity of regeneration. He spoke of the imprisonment of the Apostle Paul, and cited the faith he exercised—"Christ promises to be with him lo, to the end of world and kept that promise. These apostles prayed earnestly and Goddid not fail to answer their prayers. It was dark and damp in the cell, but when they I Paul and Siles I stood up It was dark and damp in the cell, but when they [Paul and Silas] stood up and sang and prayed, the angel of God came and lit up the cell. This was accomplished by faith." He referred to inquiries of the jailer being answered by the reply of "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shall be saved. The same applies to-day. Let the ainner believe in Jesus Christ. What is the text? He that believeth and the saved shall be saved."

Some will say why is it necessary to use a little water? What is the need of it? Well, that's God's business. It is your duty to do as he tells you to do. Many say they don't see the need of it—the sound reasoning of being baptised. There are quite a number of things that we cannot see the reason of yet are necessary to S. of Fulton, Sup't. Whiting made a call for those who desired the prayers of God's people, to bow; to understand it. We cannot understand the reason of it. Yet will any one claim that it is not necessary? Any man who is baptized is made better. Why, because he has obeyed the command and to obey makes him better.

It is an expression outwardly of what we believe in our hearts. We believe in the death and in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. He was buried, and immersion is symbolic of it—we too are buried. Says one of
